DE UAFHÆNGIGE

Danmark rummer et stort potentiale af fotografisk talent. Copenhagen Photo Festival ønsker at bringe alle aktører på fotoscenen frem i lyset for at vise, hvor levende og engageret Danmarks fotoscene er. Festivalen huser i år afgangsudstillinger af blandt andre KBH Film & Fotoskole, Krabbesholm Højskoles fotolinje og Östra Grevie Folkhögskola i Malmø og en række andre skoler, som tilsammen danner en containerby på pladsen foran Halmlageret.

Vi har et stærkt program af uafhængige udstillinger, som markerer sig ved deres dedikation og engagement. Hos Le Fix udstiller duoen Mens Du Sov deres dokumentation af de mest toneangivende danske graffitimalere, fotograferet udelukkende om natten i København. Udstillingen markerer også udgivelsen af bogen af samme titel. Fotoudstillingen BAG ÅBNE DØRE zoomer ind på Danmarks første stormoské på ydre Nørrebro i København, set med brugernes egne øjne. Projektet er led i et speciale fra Københavns Universitet og kan opleves på Grillen – Kontor & Atelier. På udstillingsstedet Øen udstiller Mathias Christensen værker fra sit nyudgivne bogprojekt Black Nest, som tager publikum med på en dunkel natrejse gennem København. På Arbejdermuseet vises udstillingen Tomorrows and Yesterdays: Mads Nissen møder Europas første fotografer, hvor arkivbilleder fra fotografiets ungdom bliver sat i relief af Mads Nissens nyfortolkninger.

THE INDEPENDENT

Denmark has a great potential for photographic talent. Copenhagen Photo Festival wants to bring all the players in the Danish photo scene to light, and let the independent platforms proof how dynamic and engaging the contemporary photo scene in Denmark is. This year the festival hosts the graduation exhibitions from KBH Film & Photo School, Krabbesholm Højskole's Photography Course, and Östra Grevie Folkhögskola in Malmö– among others. All of these schools will be exhibiting together in a construction made of containers or as we like to call it the Container City.

This year we have a strong program of independent exhibitions that stand out in their dedication to and engagement with photography. Le Fix will show the duo Mens Du Sov's documentary photographs of influential Danish graffiti writers – which were taken at night in Copenhagen. The exhibition also highlights the release of their book of the same title. In photo show BEHIND OPEN DOORS, you can take a closer look at Denmark's first large mosque in Nørrebro, Copenhagen – seen from a user's own point of view. The project is a part of a Copenhagen University thesis and is being shown at Grillen – Kontor & Atelier. The exhibition space Øen will be housing the work of Mathias Christensen from his recently published book project Black Nest, which is taking you on a midnight journey throughout Copenhagen. Arbejdermuseet is showing Tomorrows and Yesterdays: Mads Nissen Meets Europe's First Photographers, in which archival images from the early days of photography are reinterpreted.
